(5)

- (a) If the transaction value of any imported goods cannot be ascertained in terms of subsection (4), it shall be the price actually paid or payable for similar goods in a sale for export to the Republic at the same commercial level and in substantially the same quantity and exported at or about the same time as the goods to be valued, adjusted, with reference to differences in any costs and charges referred to in section 67, on account of differences in distances and modes of transport to the port or place of export.

- (c) If neither the imported goods nor identical nor similar imported goods are sold in the Republic in the same condition as that in which they were imported, then, if the importer so requests in writing, the transaction value of the imported goods in terms of this subsection shall be based on the unit price at which the imported goods, after further processing, are sold in the greatest aggregate quantity to persons in the Republic not related to the sellers of such goods, due allowance being made for the value added by such processing and the deductions referred to in paragraph (a).
- (8) The transaction value of any imported goods in terms of this subsection shall be based on a computed value, computed by means of information supplied by the producer and consisting of the sum of –

(Section 77J inserted by section 147(1) of Act 45 of 2003)

77K. Purpose of this Part

- (1) The basic principle in law is that it is the duty of the Commissioner to assess and collect taxes, duties, levies, charges and other amounts according to the laws enacted by Parliament and not to forgo any such taxes, duties, levies, charges or other amounts properly chargeable and payable.
- (2) Circumstances may, however, require that the strictness and rigidity of this basic principle be tempered where it would be to the best advantage of the state.
- (3) The purpose of this Part is to prescribe the circumstances whereunder it would be inappropriate and whereunder it would be appropriate that the basic rule be tempered and for a decision to be taken to settle a dispute.

- (c) it is in the public interest to have judicial clarification of the issue and the case is appropriate for this purpose;
- (d) the pursuit of the matter through the courts will significantly promote compliance of the tax laws and the case is suitable for this purpose; or
- (e) the person concerned has not complied with the provisions of any Act administered by the Commissioner and the Commissioner is of the opinion that the non-compliance is of a serious nature.

(Section 77L inserted by section 147(1) of Act 45 of 2003)

- (a) whether that settlement would be in the interest of good management of the tax system, overall fairness and the best use of the Commissioner's resources;
- (b) the cost of litigation in comparison to the possible benefits with reference to-
 - (i) the prospects of success in a court;
 - (ii) the prospects of collection of the amounts due; and
 - (iii) the costs associated with collection;
- (c) whether there are any-
 - (i) complex factual or quantum issues in contention; or

- (ii) evidentiary difficulties, which are sufficient to make the case problematic in outcome or unsuitable for resolution through the alternative dispute resolution procedures or the courts;

- (d) a situation where a participant or a group of participants in a tax avoidance arrangement has accepted the Commissioner's position in the dispute, in which case the settlement may be negotiated in an appropriate manner required to unwind existing structures and arrangements; or
- (e) whether the settlement of the dispute will promote compliance of the tax laws by the person concerned or a group of taxpayers or a section of the public in a cost-effective way.

 - (c) treatment of that issue in future years;
